Individual Membership: Single member discount on GPN professional development, one vote, e-newsletter, inclusion in member roster, and other benefits of membership.

Agency Membership: A member agency/organization receives one vote. One person from the agency will be the designated "member of record" who will be listed in the member roster and receive the e-newsletter (which may be shared with others in the agency). Multiple employees of member agency/organization receive discounts on GPN professional development and other benefits of membership.

Student Membership: Students in college/university/other professional development where they are participating in a not-for-profit curriculum and have an interest in grant writing.
